HISTORICAL CITY TOUR & SALMON BAKE

Port: Skagway
Tour Code: SGY_06

Tour historic Skagway, as your guide points out places of interest and amuses you with tales of the famous and foolhardy. Wind through streets lined with wooden boardwalks and false-fronted buildings en route to a Gold Rush Trail Camp re-created on the very spot where it stood a century ago. At Liarsville, you’ll dine on freshly grilled filet of Alaskan Salmon, baked chicken, rice pilaf, and a variety of salads, baked beans, corn bread, coffee, lemonade, and dessert. Wander through the camp and visit the general store, saloon, and bordello and laundry tents to view the antiques and vintage clothing left behind and have your picture taken with one of the dance hall girls or the camp mascot, a loveable freight husky.

CHILKOOT LAKE FRESHWATER FISHING
Port: Skagway
Tour Code: SGY_60

Enjoy spectacular scenery, including magnificent waterfalls and mountain peaks, as you travel through the waters of the Lynn Fjord, bound for Haines. From Haines, enjoy a scenic 20-minute drive to Chilkoot Lake, one of the most picturesque locations in southeast Alaska. Your fishing expedition begins aboard a comfortable, 28-foot pontoon boat. Depending on the season, several varieties of wild salmon and Dolly Varden are the likely catches. Each angler is in control of their own lightweight spin-cast rod and reel. There is a maximum of six guests per boat. Your experienced guide assists with everything from new fishing methods to untangling your lines while you relax and absorb the grandeur of the surrounding snow-clad mountains. Note: Participants must be at least 6 years of age. Fishing duration is approximately 3 hours. Alaska State Law requires a fishing license that can be purchased on the fishing boat for $20. During king salmon season, you must purchase an additional $10 tag. Fishing is conducted on a catch-and-release basis. This tour includes a round-trip cruise aboard a comfortable catamaran.

DENVER VALLEY WILDERNESS HIKE
Port: Skagway
Tour Code: SGY_85

This trip combines a 28 mile scenic rail journey aboard the White Pass Railway, though the White Pass to Fraser, B.C., with a 5-mile wilderness hike in the old growth forest of the Denver Valley. The rail portion of your trip will be broken into two parts, before and after the hike. This world renowned railway adventure carries you up and over the White Pass Summit, and comes complete with waterfalls, rushing rivers, trestles, and tunnels as you trace portions of the original Trail of '98. After disembarking at Denver Station, a short safety briefing and gear-up will prepare you for your forest adventure. Leaving the trailhead, your professional guides will lead you through the glacially carved valley full of dense, temperate, rainforest filled with old growth Western Hemlock and Sitka Spruce trees. The trail traces the raging East Fork of the Skagway River, meeting it intermittently and providing photo opportunities. From the depths of the river valley, gaze at the craggy peaks of the Sawtooth Mountains, rising promptly to 7,000 feet above sea level. Hiking through the pristine old growth of the Tongass National Forest will leave you awed by the 1,000 year old trees, and photo stops by the river and at Denver Falls will be highlights of this mix of exercise and natural beauty. Strong hikers may be capable of gaining views of the Denver Glacier in the upper reaches of the valley. A bus ride back to Skagway completes your exploration of the region. Note: Participants must be at least 9 years of age, in good physical condition and able to hike 5 miles over uneven and sometimes challenging terrain including rocks and tree roots in all weather conditions without assistance. Hiking boots or shoes with good ankle support are recommended and layered clothing. Rain gear and lumbar packs are provided. This excursion enters Canada – all participants are required to carry a valid passport. This tour may operate in reverse order.

GOLD PANNING, SLED DOGS & 40° BELOW
Port: Skagway
Tour Code: SGY_86

Your adventure begins as you board your motor coach for a ride through the historic streets of downtown Skagway to the Klondike Gold Fields. Once there, meet your guide and watch a video presentation introducing you to dogs of the Klondike Gold Rush and highlights what winter dog sledding is like today. Meet and interact with the Iditarod sled dogs and their puppies, stopping first by the checkpoint tent with your musher. Here you are introduced to all the gear a musher and dog team takes with them on a long distance race like the Iditarod. Your musher introduces you to the team and then hooks the dogs to a sled so you may watch a demonstration run. Next, feel the cold of an Iditarod race and experience the thrill of 40° degrees below zero for yourself! After suiting up in a parka and snow boots, step into a cold chamber for an instant deep-freeze effect. Watch as water immediately crystallizes in mid-air and experience other unique features of the extreme cold. After this chilling experience, get ready to warm up with a little gold fever! Your gold rush experience isn’t complete until you meet a cast of costumed characters for some fun as well as a chance to claim your fortune at the Klondike Gold Fields. Learn the art of panning for gold while you practice your technique in warm-water troughs. You can count on striking gold. Note: Stay past your departure time, and Klondike Gold Fields will provide you a ticket for a shuttle ride back to
It's time to make the journey into the Yukon! Climb aboard a deluxe motor coach and experience the magic and the mystery of the famed Yukon. Soon after departing the dock, you'll be climbing the South Klondike Highway to the top of the White Pass 3,292-feet above sea level. Majestic peaks, waterfalls, and glaciers can all be experienced and enjoyed on this incredible drive. After a picture stop at the 'Welcome to the Yukon' sign head to the Yukon Suspension Bridge to depart the dock, you'll be climbing the South Klondike Highway to the top of the White Pass 3,292-feet above sea level. Majestic peaks, waterfalls, and glaciers can all be experienced and enjoyed on this incredible drive. After a picture stop at the 'Welcome to the Yukon' sign head to the Yukon Suspension Bridge to experience the pristine air, the roar of raging white water and the sensation of a swaying walkway over 60-feet above the rapids. There are Tagish First Nation Staff and Elders to answer questions about the site and a variety of First Nations art pieces and crafts available for purchase as well. After your experience at the Yukon Suspension Bridge continue on your motor coach for the journey down the west side of the White Pass canyon. Listen as your driver guide regales you with stories of the stampeders who trekked through the pass in search of gold. You'll see picturesque points such as Tormented Valley and Pitchfork Falls as you head home back to your ship. Note: This excursion enters Canada – all participants are required to carry a valid passport.

BEST OF SKAGWAY

Port: Skagway
Tour Code: SGY_04

Relax in an antique parlor car onboard the historical White Pass & Yukon Route railroad. Gaze in awe at the incredible scenery as your train ascends dramatic mountains and your guide shares colorful stories and the history of the gold rush. From the depot in Fraser, British Columbia, board a motorcoach and travel the spectacular Klondike Highway to view the Tormented Valley and Pitchfork Falls. At the foot of the pass, discover Liarsville Gold Rush Trail Camp. Here, a cast of sourdoughs and dance hall girls entertain you with a hilarious melodrama and recite poetry by Robert Service, the "Bard of the North." Learn the art of gold panning and try your luck in the Liarsville gold fields, where you’re guaranteed to find the precious metal that drove stampederers wild. Head to the barbecue for freshly grilled wild Alaskan salmon, baked chicken and a variety of delicious side dishes. After lunch, wander through the camp and have your picture taken with the dance hall girls or the camp’s lovable mascot, an Alaskan husky. The grand finale of the tour is a visit to the world-famous Red Onion Saloon and Brothel in historic downtown Skagway. The Red Onions’ Madams will fill your glass with Alaskan amber beer, wine or root beer as you are entertained by tales of the ladies who used to work in these historic rooms! Note: Participants must be at least 16 years of age. This excursion enters Canada - all participants are required to carry a valid passport. Tour may operate in reverse order.

EAGLE PRESERVE FLOAT

Port: Skagway

This tour includes a round-trip cruise aboard a comfortable catamaran. Enjoy spectacular scenery including magnificent waterfalls and mountain peaks, as you travel through the waters of the Lynn Fjord, bound for Haines. Sightsee your way to Haines aboard an exclusive marine wildlife watching vessel. The naturalist guides lead you through this adventure from the gold rush town of Skagway to the quaint community of Haines and ultimately rafting through the world-famous Chilkat Bald Eagle Preserve. The preserve boasts the world’s largest gathering of bald eagles and is home to moose, bears, wolves, and a host of other animals. The best way to see the preserve is by floating peacefully down the river, through the heart of this majestic valley. Throughout your adventure, towering mountains, hanging glaciers, lush forests, and fresh air will surround you. Expert guides share their extensive knowledge of the unique ecosystems and the area’s rich native history, including the riverside village of Klukwan, the center of Tlingit culture for centuries. At the end of your float, you’ll be treated to a picnic-style lunch. Note: Participants must be at least 7 years of age. Ponchos and boots are provided at the site.

EVENING WILDLIFE EXPEDITION

Port: Skagway

This tour includes a round-trip cruise aboard a comfortable catamaran. Enjoy spectacular scenery including magnificent waterfalls and mountain peaks, as you travel through the waters of the Lynn Fjord, bound for Haines. Naturalists take you to the sheltered valley of the Chilkoot River, which was for thousands of years, an ancestral fishing site for the Tlingit people and for brown bears. As the sun slowly sets, bear families descend on the river, leaving the cover of the forest to forage along the grassy banks. From the protection of your bus, witness the ‘food chain’ in action as thousands of salmon swim past the hungry bruins, splashing and feeding in the water. Spotting scopes bring the action up close, as bald eagles, gulls, ravens, and ducks hover over the spawning fish. Discover the connection between the fish, bears, and the lush trees that line the river. Enjoy a delicious picnic meal on your return to Skagway. This is a unique evening wildlife viewing opportunity with limited capacity. Bears are not guaranteed. Current wildlife sighting updates are posted at the sales desk. Relax and enjoy as a naturalist guide educates you on the incredible fjord and local marine wildlife. Step back in time with one of the sensational madams of the Red Onion Saloon. Lavishly costumed and highly entertaining, she will guide you through the streets and back alleys of Skagway, where women of the evening brushed shoulders with notorious characters such as Soapy Smith and Skookum Jim. Stories of Klondike Kate, Cad Wilson, Pea Hull Annie and Diamond Lil depict the adventurous, lusty, and sometimes tragic lives of thousands of women who stampeded north. Your journey will take you past historic 1898 buildings and notorious gold rush districts as you explore the often forgotten part of Skagway history. Your experience culminates with a stop at the world famous Red Onion Saloon's restored Brothel Museum. Here, join in a champagne toast and explore the halls and bedrooms of this infamous brothel, observing original relics and images of the "ladies of the evening" who worked there. And, if you are lucky, you might even catch a glimpse of the resident ghost, Lydia. Note: Participants must be at least 16 years of age.

GLACIER POINT WILDERNESS SAFARI

Port: Skagway

Tour Code: SGY_25

This outstanding wilderness expedition leads you through the beauty of Alaska as you journey through fjords, rainforests, colorful wildflowers, and towering mountains, ultimately taking you face-to-face with the Davidson Glacier. Your adventure begins with an approximately 40-minute cruise through Alaska’s deepest fjord aboard one of the fastest catamarans in North America. Watch for whales and sea lions along the way to a remote beach landing at Glacier Point, one of the most beautiful places in Alaska. After a short adventurous drive and a scenic, approximately quarter-mile walk, the forest suddenly opens to a breathtaking view of the glacier. A 31-foot canoe waits to take you past icebergs to the face of the blue glacier. Throughout your tour, expert guides share their extensive knowledge of this amazing area. A tasty snack box will be served on board the catamaran on the way to Glacier Point. Note: Participants must be at least 7 years of age. Outerwear and boots are provided. ### GOLDEN GLASSBLOWING EXPERIENCE

Port: Skagway

Tour Code: SGY_55

This unique hands-on ‘Hot Shop’ adventure is truly a once in a lifetime opportunity to blow your own glass art in the Last Frontier - complete with real gold in your finished piece! Escape to the tranquility of beautiful Jewell Gardens for a very personal and fun filled glassblowing workshop. You’ll keep the glass you make, and we’ll even take care of the shipping after it cools to anywhere in the world. From the moment you leave the pier you’ll know you’re on a very different kind of excursion - this experience has been carefully designed not to be a ‘tour’ in the traditional sense, but rather an exciting learning adventure on a very personal scale. Upon arrival at Jewell Gardens, your guide will give you a private orientation to this spectacular Northern Show Garden and our Hot Shop where you’ll learn the ancient art of working with molten glass to create your ultimate Alaskan memento - an ornament for hanging in a window or on your Christmas tree - or use it as a float in your garden pond. You are the designer, before blowing your piece you’ll choose your color combinations and whether you want stripes, swirls or spots. In the spirit of the Gold Rush, we even offer you the chance to incorporate 24K gold for spectacular effect. Following the Hot Shop studio experience you’ll be treated to a delicious tea service, lunch, or light dinner (depending on the time of day) before returning to your ship. This exciting new program is limited to just ten participants so reserve your space now. Note: Participants must be at least 7 years of age. Finished pieces can be shipped from the Hot Shop. Participants are advised to wear cotton or other natural fiber clothes if possible - protective lab coats, safety glasses, and individual sterilized mouthpieces are provided.

KLONDIKE GOLD FIELDS, WHITE PASS RAILWAY & SCENIC HIGHWAY

Port: Skagway

Don’t miss this ‘golden’ opportunity to see the Klondike’s rich past on this historical railway and dredge tour. Board a motorcoach and journey up the west side of the White Pass Canyon to Fraser, British Columbia. Your driver-guide will regale you with tales of stampedes who traveled the pass in search of gold. A stop at Tormented Valley and Pitchfork Falls will provide picturesque valley views. At Fraser, board the White Pass and Yukon Route Railroad. Aboard an old-fashioned parlor car, you’ll retrace the original route through rugged terrain beyond the summit of White Pass and Fraser, British Columbia. Once back in Skagway, board a comfortable motorcoach to visit a massive gold dredge formerly used deep in the Klondike. Next, you’ll experience the historical thrill of the 1898 Gold Rush. This guided tour, complete with colorful characters, provides a unique opportunity to explore a massive Gold Dredge formerly used in the Klondike Gold Fields. You’ll hear and see the men who toiled under the midnight sun in search of gold. See mining antiques, including archival photographs. This amazing 350-ton piece of machinery is one of over 120 that operated in the north, and today stands as a great monument to the gold rush seekers of the past century. After viewing a gold panning exhibition, you’ll have a chance to try your hand at gold panning - with gold guaranteed in every pan. The Gold Shack staff will then weigh your gold and fashion a memorable keepsake available for purchase. On your return to Skagway, you may either stop for shopping or return directly to the ship. Note: This tour enters Canada - all participants are required to carry a valid passport.

MUSHER’S CAMP & SLED DOG DISCOVERY

Port: Skagway

Tour Code: SGY_47

Get a glimpse of a truly northern pastime and learn about the life of sled dogs and their musher. See these powerful dogs in action as they pull you through the backcountry of a historic Gold Rush site. During your van ride out of Skagway, your guide acquaints you to the area’s Gold Rush history and the present-day community. Arriving at the dog camp, you’ll meet the dogs and climb onto a wheeled sled that has been custom made for running during the snowless summer months. The husky team will whisk you along a one-mile round trip wooded trail through Southeast Alaska’s temperate rain forest. Spruce and hemlock trees, thick spagma moss, glacially fed waterfalls and views of the Taiya Inlet tidal flats surround you on this unique excursion. There will be time to cuddle husky puppies and take a guided walk through the musher’s camp as you learn about the equipment, hard work, and the physical strength that goes into the life of dog sledding in the... wild, rugged North. Note: Some walking over slightly uneven ground is required. Each land sled seats 6 people. This tour is not conducted on snow.

NATURE & WILDLIFE EXPEDITION

Port: Skagway

Tour Code: SGY_30

Travel with engaging naturalists through the "Valley of the Eagles" to view Alaska's magnificent wildlife and enjoy breathtaking photo opportunities. Nestled between rugged glaciers and snow-capped mountains, the fertile Chilkoot Valley is home to generations of brown bears, bald eagles, mountain goats, river otters, spawning salmon and numerous birds. Powerful spotting scopes afford close-up views of mountain goats in alpine meadows, bears along the river, and bald eagles in active nests. You can actually take photos through the scopes. Colorful harlequin ducks, marbled Murrelets, loons, surf scoters, seals, sea lions, porpoise and whales are seasonal highlights. Visit a salmon counting weir and witness their migration to spawn. On the shore of a picturesque lake, experience the lush under-story of the world's largest temperate rainforest during a refreshing walk through an ancient muskeg, beneath magnificent hemlock and spruce trees. Guides will point out the highlights of Haines and historic Fort Seward on the return drive through town. A delicious dockside deli-style picnic lunch will be served for those returning to Skagway. Don't miss this chance to experience the wildlife of Haines! Note: By August, spawning salmon offer a greater chance of spotting bears. We take advantage of the long Alaska twilight on a later departure of this tour called: Evening Wildlife Expedition (only available to guests on Norwegian Pearl & Norwegian Sun). Naturalists take you to the sheltered valley of the Chilkoot River, which was for thousands of years, an ancestral fishing site for the Tlingit people and for brown bears. As the sun slowly sets, bear families descend on the river, leaving the cover of the forest to forage along the grassy banks. From the protection of your bus, witness the "food chain" in action as thousands of salmon swim past the hungry bruins, splashing and feeding in the water. Spotting scopes bring the action up close, as bald eagles, gulls, ravens and ducks hover over the spawning fish. Discover the connection between the fish, bears and the lush trees that line the river. Enjoy a delicious picnic meal on your return to Skagway. This is a unique evening wildlife viewing opportunity with limited capacity. Bears are not guaranteed. Current wildlife sighting updates are posted at the sales desk. This tour includes a round-trip cruise aboard a comfortable catamaran. Enjoy spectacular scenery including magnificent waterfalls and mountain peaks, as you travel through the waters of the Lynn Fjord, bound for Haines. Relax and enjoy as a naturalist guide educates you on the incredible fjord and local marine wildlife. RAINFOREST BICYCLE ADVENTURE

Port: Skagway

Tour Code: SGY_23

Experience the natural beauty of the coastal rainforest and tidal meadows on a relaxing bicycle ride. Your adventure begins with an approximately 20-minute narrated van ride to Dyea, a once-thriving community of 10,000 gold stampers that hoped to strike it rich in the Klondike. Now nature has reclaimed the land. You ride through the rainforest, visit historic ruins, the Chilkoot trailhead, and coastal tidal flats where eagles, salmon, colorful wildflowers and dazzling mountains are often in view. The biking portion covers approximately 5 miles of flat terrain in 1 hour and 45 minutes. Note: Participants must be at least 10 years of age, 4’ 6” tall and comfortable utilizing hand brakes. Outerwear is provided. For more details about this tour please visit: http://www.skagwaybicycletours.com/ncl

SAWTOOTH MOUNTAIN RAINFOREST HIKE & RAILWAY

Port: Skagway

Tour Code: SGY_19

This tour combines a short rail trip aboard the historic White Pass & Yukon Route Railway with a dramatic wilderness hike. Board the historic railroad for a brief ride to a wilderness whistle stop and the Denver Trailhead. Experienced guides will accompany you through the dense temperate rainforest, filled with beautiful old-growth western hemlocks. Lookout points provide spectacular views of the raging waters of the Skagway River, the Denver Glacier Valley and the magnificent...
Sawtooth Mountain Range. There are plenty of opportunities along the way for photographs and wildlife viewing. Guides will provide information on the valley’s forest, plants and geology. On the trail, be provided with snacks and water and at the end of the hike you’ll be served beverages while enjoying the train ride back to town. Note: Participants must be at least 9 years of age and in good physical condition. This is a wilderness hike over uneven and sometimes difficult terrain. Hiking boots or shoes with good ankle support are recommended. Rain gear, lumbar packs and trekking poles are provided. Train returns from Canada - all participants are required to carry a valid passport. Tour duration includes approximately three hours on the trail (4 to 5 miles).

WHITE PASS RAILWAY "SPECIAL" & KLONDIKE GOLD FIELDS

Port: Skagway

Ride the rails in style, and get a taste of the Klondike you’ll never forget. Begin with a tour of downtown Skagway—find out what made it the Gateway to the Klondike. Then, your motorcoach will bring you down the banks of the Skagway River. There, the Brew Master will meet you at the Gold Rush Micro-Brewery boasting finely crafted wooden porches and open decks. Move into the tasting room where the Brew Master will fascinate you with a description of how brews and wine are made. Enjoy a glass of the brew or wine of your choice and roam the three levels of this incredible structure. Next, your Prospector will teach you the art of gold panning and you can practice your technique in heated water. Weigh your gold in our Gold Parlor and have it transferred into a bezel or vial for safekeeping and showing off. From the Klondike Gold Fields you’ll transfer over to the historic White Pass & Yukon Route railroad to continue your adventure. The train ride follows the same route that thousands of prospectors trotted on foot in search of gold. On this exclusive tour, enjoy a private rail car and a costumed escort from the dredge who entertains and shares personal stories of gold prospecting complimented by historic narration provided by railroad crew. As you revisit the gold rush era from the comfort of your parlor car, enjoy a snack of cheese, crackers, cookies and candy. At the White Pass Summit, raise a glass of champagne or sparkling cider for a Klondike toast! If you want to be "treated like gold," come along for an unforgettable Alaskan experience. Note: Participants must be at least 21 years of age to taste the beer and wine and a photo ID with date of birth is required. For more details about this tour please visit: http://www.nclgold.com

WHITE PASS RAILWAY & KLONDIKE GOLD FIELDS

Port: Skagway

Ride the rails in style, revisit the gold rush era, and experience the life of a prospector on this outstanding, fun-filled family tour. In the comfort of your group’s private parlor car, a costumed escort straight from 1898 will entertain and share personal stories of gold prospecting. The train ride follows the same route that thousands of prospectors trotted on foot in search of gold. Historical narration is provided by the White Pass & Yukon railroad crew as you witness the breathtaking panorama. Transfer to a motorcoach for a short drive to the Klondike Gold Fields. There you’ll be immersed in the wild history of the Klondike Gold Rush. The Dredge Master will acquaint you with the Gold Dredge, a 350 ton gold sifting machine brought back from the Klondike and reconstructed piece by piece on the shores of the Skagway River. Learn the art of gold panning from a Prospector and practice your technique in heated water. After you’ve hit pay dirt, you can weigh your fortune in the Gold Shack. Enjoy browsing the Gold Parlor and transform your newfound fortune into a fine piece of jewelry. Visit the Gold Rush Brewery to quench your thirst. View a collection of Alaskan artifacts, whalebone, ivory, and local hand carved artwork. There is so much for the whole family to enjoy! Note: For your convenience, a shuttle bus runs continuously back to the ship so that you can stay as long as you like. The afternoon departure of this tour is referred to as ‘White Pass Railway ‘Special’ & Klondike Gold Fields’. Please refer to tour description SGY_62. WHITE PASS RAILWAY & LAUGHTON GLACIER WILDERNESS HIKE

Port: Skagway

This trip combines a train ride aboard the Historic White Pass & Yukon Route Railway with a wilderness trek to the magnificent Laughton Glacier. You’ll board the train for a one-hour scenic journey filled with spectacular waterfalls, rushing rivers and jagged mountain peaks. At Glacier Station, you’ll begin a fully guided, eight-mile round-trip hike in the clean mountain air. The magnificent sub-Alpine rainforest valley is home to an abundance of moose, bear, and mountain goats. This spectacular trail winds along the raging Skagway River to the majestic Laughton Glacier. The terrain changes dramatically as you leave the rocky riverbed and climb over a boulder field and onto the glacier. Enjoy the breathtaking views, exposed crevasses and mullions of the great frozen river of ice, ever changing in the harsh Alaskan environment. Upon your return to the trailhead, you’ll be greeted with our traditional ‘Bush Buffet,’ complete with beverages. Relax and enjoy the ride back to town on ‘The Scenic Railway of the World.’ Note: Participants must be at least 9 years of age, in good physical condition and able to walk over uneven and sometimes difficult terrain. This trip covers 6 to 8 miles. Hiking boots or shoes with good ankle support are recommended. Rain gear, lumbar packs and trekking poles are provided. We recommend you dress in layers, as temperatures range between 50-75 degrees. Train returns from Canada – all participants are required to carry a valid passport.

WHITE PASS RAILWAY, KLONDIKE HIGHWAY & GOLD CAMP ADVENTURE

Port: Skagway

Ride the White Pass & Yukon Route Railway, enjoy a scenic motorcoach ride along the Klondike Highway and visit historic Liarsville Gold Rush Trail Camp. From the White Pass Train, beautiful waterfalls and sheer drop-offs will thrill you as your onboard narrator brings the history to life. As you crest the summit of the White Pass, you’ll enter the eerie landscape of the Tormented Valley in Fraser, British Columbia; you will get off the White Pass train for the return motorcoach ride along the Klondike Highway. From the highway, view Dead Horse Gulch and the railroad route etched into the mountain face where you traveled just an hour before. At the foot of the White Pass, nestled beside a waterfall, discover Liarsville Gold Rush Trail Camp. At the Liarsville Hippodrome, a cast of sourdoughs and dance hall girls will dazzle you with drama, recite Robert Service poetry and teach you the art of gold panning. You’ll be set free in the Liarsville gold fields, where you are guaranteed to find that precious metal that drove men and women wild with Gold Fever! Take time to wander through the camp and visit the general store, saloon, bordello and laundry tents to view the antiques and vintage clothing left behind by the miners and ladies of the evening. Note: This excursion enters Canada - all participants are required to carry a valid passport. This tour may operate in reverse order.

YUKON EXPEDITION & WHITE PASS RAILWAY

Port: Skagway

Climb aboard a deluxe motorcoach for a 65-mile journey to experience the magic of the famed Yukon Territory. You’ll climb the South Klondike Highway to the top of the White Pass at 3,292 feet above sea level. Majestic peaks, waterfalls, and glaciers can all be experienced on this incredible drive. Leaving the White Pass and the U.S. behind, you’ll enter Canada, and see the unspoiled beauty of the Yukon Territory. Marvel at the chain of lakes that form the headwaters of the Yukon River, explore the rustic town of Caribou Crossing (Carcross), snap a quick photo of the ‘world’s smallest desert,’ and enjoy the tales of the Klondike Gold Rush. At Caribou Crossing, you’ll be treated to a delicious chicken barbeque lunch complete with grandma’s famous homemade donuts. After your meal, you’ll have the opportunity to tour the Yukon’s museum exhibit of local wildlife, including the Ice Age Wooly Mammoth. Carry on to the Dog Musher’s Village, where you can visit with Yukon Quest dog mushers and take pictures with the racing dogs and puppies. Once back at Fraser, British Columbia, you’ll board the White Pass & Yukon Route Railroad for an unforgettable and breathtaking ride. Note: This excursion enters Canada - all participants are required to carry a valid passport. This is due to Canadian Immigration and Customs clearance in Fraser.

TAKSHANUK MOUNTAIN TRAIL 4X4
Port: Skagway
Tour Code: SGY_37

This tour includes a round-trip cruise aboard a comfortable catamaran. Enjoy spectacular scenery including magnificent waterfalls and mountain peaks, as you travel through the waters of the Lynn Fjord, bound for Haines. Relax and enjoy as a naturalist guide educates you on the incredible fjord and local marine wildlife. Takshanuk Mountain Trail is a 3-hour, six-mile roundtrip tour through some of the most pristine wilderness in Alaska. Arriving in Haines, you’ll be greeted with a warm welcome from your personal guide. You’ll venture out Lutak Road alongside the Lynn Canal to Takshanuk Mountain. When you reach the base of the trail, you’ll be shown how to operate the Kawasaki Mule, which is best described as a heavy duty golf cart with automatic transmission and four-wheel drive. The mules are equipped with seat belts, are easily accessible and have storage for oxygen tanks and wheelchairs. The excitement begins with the first spectacular view just moments after starting on the trail. The smooth ride takes you three miles up and ends at an approximately 1,500-foot elevation. With several lookouts and points of interest along the way, this tour is exciting for all ages! At the rest stop area, a stop will be made to see the Lynn Canal and enjoy a halibut and BBQ chicken lunch. Join an unforgettable visit to a very special Alaskan town that few ever have the chance to visit and experience! Note: Participants must provide a valid driver’s license, in order to drive the Kawasaki Mule. For more details about this tour please visit: www.hainesatvtour.com.<

WHITE PASS RAILWAY & GLACIER LAKE KAYAK
Port: Skagway
Tour Code: SGY_45

Carved out of the rugged Coastal Mountains, this ride aboard the "Scenic Railway of the World" is truly unforgettable, complete with stunning views of waterfalls, trestles, mountains, glaciers and the original "Trail of '98." Experience the beauty of the Canadian wilds disembarking at Lake Bernard. Your adventure starts with a "gear grab" and instruction in the use of stable, state-of-the-art, two-person kayaks. Paddle across the cold pristine waters that Klondikers plied to reach the goldfields of the Yukon and enjoy unobstructed views of snow-capped mountains that rise in all directions. Your guide will thrill you with interpretations of the gold rush, natural history, flora, and fauna. Watch for bears, mountain goats, caribous, and eagles amid the Alpine terrain of the Tormented Valley. After paddling, enjoy a light snack and refreshments, before boarding a motorcoach for your return to Skagway. Note: Participants must be at least 9 years of age and in good physical condition. This excursion enters Canada - all participants are required to carry a valid passport. This is an active trip with extended periods of physical activity. All equipment and outerwear is provided. Tour may run in reverse order. Available after June 8th.
